A CAIXA DE MÚSICA

Who am I

Portuguese musician, composer, and multi-instrumentalist holding a degree in Music from the University of Évora.

Since 2018, I have been working professionally in live music—primarily playing the violin and saxophone—at weddings, ceremonies, cocktail hours, private events, and corporate functions.

Music is at the heart of my journey and my work. I enjoy creating performances that are carefully crafted yet natural, seamlessly blending into the moment and resonating with the audience.

Instruments

Violin · Saxophone · Piano · Guitar

Cerimonies

Music accompanies some of the most memorable moments of a ceremony, whether religious or civil, from the reception of guests to the most symbolic moments of the celebration.

The service includes approximately 30 minutes of background music before the ceremony begins, musical accompaniment throughout the celebration, and personalized support in choosing the repertoire, adapting each performance to the space and desired style.

Available as:

Soloist

Duo

Trio

Cocktail

A musical setting designed to accompany the reception of guests, creating an elegant, relaxed, and welcoming atmosphere.

With a typical duration of up to two hours, each performance is adapted to the context of the event, being available in different formations and musical styles to suit the ambiance and preferences of each client.
